VOLUME LII — UKIAH CITY, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1920 — NUMBER 47

NURSING CLASSES CLOSE WITH EXAMS. YESTERDAY

Unbeknown to the large majority of Ukiah people, three classes of Ukiah women, comprising a total enrollment of about 60 individuals, have been faithfully attending the nursing classes started several months ago by Miss Turner, the community Red Cross nurse, at the public library. Yesterday the final examinations were held by Miss Turner and the papers will be forwarded to district headquarters for perusal. Sixteen took the examination.

The course gives the successful student the technical knowledge requisite to nursing any ordinary case of sickness or disease, the practical training, of course, coming with actual application of the knowledge gained in the class room. However, it is of considerable value to have in the community a number of women with the technical knowledge that Miss Turner's classes have gained, who may be available in cases of epidemic such as the country have passed through in recent months.

A course such as Miss Turner has given might with great benefit be inaugurated in the local high school, and it is to be hoped that something may be done in the very near future with a view to establishing such a course.

The course embodies the official Red Cross training which, during the war times, took six months' time to complete.

The graduates are entitled to the full standing of the graduate nurse.

JOHN BLAIR KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

FORT BRAGG, August 25.—John Blair, well known pioneer of Westport, died here yesterday as the result of an auto accident.

Mr. Blair was making arrangements to have new-comers haul ties for him. Sunday morning he took them out to his claim on the road which runs along the ridge between Hardy and Juan Creeks.

Eighty ties were loaded on the 2½ ton truck. Not knowing the road, the driver came over a steep pitch on the high, and the truck ran away.

In passing through a cut on a turn, the machine partly capsized, lodging against the bank.

The driver and his companion were thrown clear of the truck, but Mr. Blair's leg became entangled so that the entire weight of the ties pinned it to the bank, crushing his ankle to a pulp.

Deceased was 59 years old and is survived by two brothers, B. M. and Rufus C. Blair, both of the north coast.

Hopland Man Faces Grave Criminal Charge

A. R. Strong, an erstwhile resident of Hopland faces arrest on a charge of criminal abandonment of his wife and family, Mrs. Strong coming up to this city and swearing to a warrant Wednesday. It is alleged by the woman that Strong went away last June from their home at Hopland and took employment at Auburn. Since that time he has failed to contribute anything to the support of his family, according to Mrs. Strong, and has failed to answer her letters and her pleas for assistance.

Strong will be arrested and brought back to answer the charge against him.

Noyo Hold-up Men Plead For Probation

Pleading guilty to the charge of robbery that had been preferred against them, Clifton Adams and Andy Stilwell, the two Noyo hold-up men, interposed a plea for probation before Judge White in the Superior Court last Friday afternoon, when they came up for their arraignment. The judge postponed the case one week pending an investigation of their records by Probation Officer J. R. Thomas.

FIRE DEPT. HAS BUSY TIME DURING PAST WEEK

Two Major and Two Minor Fires Entail Property Loss of Thousands

The past week has been a busy one for the Ukiah Fire Department, four alarms having been turned in and a property loss of about $15,000 being involved.

The first alarm came last Monday for a fire at the storage quarters of the Maddox Truck Co. Robert Pierson, manager for the company, had been cleaning a car with gasoline. It is believed that some of the wires from the battery became short circuited, for the gasoline became ignited. Pierson was underneath the machine, which soon became a mass of flames from the burning gasoline. He was badly burned about the arms, but crawled out and pushed the car away from a pan of waste oil which had been set afire. The fire spread to a shed nearby, but was extinguished by the department before doing much damage.

Tuesday afternoon the barn in the rear of the dwelling occupied by Ed Dunn, just north of the gas plant, caught fire and was burned to the ground, entailing a loss to Mr. Dunn of several hundred dollars, which is covered by insurance. The property is owned by J. W. Preston, and is also covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have started from a spark from the gas plant, as the wind was strongly from the south and the plant but a few feet away and the smokestack is without any screen. Several other fires have been started recently by sparks from the plant, one last June doing considerable damage and necessitating calling out the fire department. It was with great difficulty that the Dunn house and the LaPorte planing mill were saved Tuesday.

However, shortly after midnight Tuesday night the LaPorte mill went up in smoke, the fire starting presumably from a spark that had lodged the day before from the Dunn fire. Nothwithstanding that there was a watchman at the LaPorte plant, the flames had gained such headway when he discovered them that there was absolutely no hope of saving the building. Lee David, who was acting as watchman, states that the fire started within the building, at the southeast corner, where a hole had been burned in the roof the day before. By the time the fire department had arrived the place was half consumed.

Mr. LaPorte's loss is in the neighborhood of $10,000. He carried $1,000 insurance on the building and $2,000 on the equipment. In addition $4,000 is carried on the lumber in the lumber yeard, but the damage to this was nominal.

Mr. LaPorte has twice before been the victim of large fire losses, his home having been burned several years ago, and his planing mill having been burned in the big fire two years ago.

While the Dunn fire was raging Tuesday afternoon an alarm was sent in for a grass fire near the Seth Williams home in the northern part of town. As this was in the direct path of the cinders being blown from the fire at the Dunn home it is believed to have been caused by a spark blown from that fire.

The fire Tuesday night would in all probability have wiped out the property of the Ukiah Farmers' Club as well as several residences across the street had it not been for the heavy downpour of rain which was going on at the time.

FATAL ACCIDENT

ELK, August 23.—John Martin, a brakeman on the camp 11 road fell off the train this morning near the Summit. Both legs and an arm were cut off. He died while being rushed to the hospital at Greenwood.

GAS CONSUMERS ACT TO SAVE PLANT FOR TOWN

The announcement by Mr. Eckert, owner of the Ukiah gas plant, that he will close the plant down at the end of this month has aroused consternation among many of the consumers and last Monday evning a meeting was held in the courthouse to discuss ways and means of preventing the shutdown until such time as a method might be devised to keep the plant going permanently.

The only plan brought forth that appeared feasible was to raise sufficient money to take an option on the plant. On a request for an expression of the sentiment of the meeting the majority went on record as desiring to save the plant and 14 pledges of $100 each were obtained in the meeting. A canvass is now being made for further peldges.

The fourteen pledging the initial sum were Judge Mannon, Dr. Stout, Mayor Smith, W. P. Thomas, T. J. Weldon, J. R. Thomas, T. M. Cleland, Wm. Cox, F. T. Barker, Lynn Foster, M. Cambot, Jas. Stitt, Arthur Tracy, J. A. Jamison.

I. M. Brazier was appointed to go to San Francisco to interview Eckert and others and attempt to make arrangements to keep the plant going temporarily.

Acting with J. H. Barker, Brazier succeeded in obstaining the assurance that Eckert will keep the plant going for another thirty days if the citizens will guarantee $750 for a carload of oil and an additional sum sufficient to see him out without any loss for the month's operations.

LIGHTENING LEVELS HOPS ON McGARVEY RANCH

Lightening is believed to have caused the collapse of a big acreage of high-pole hops on the McGarvey ranch last Tuesday night. During the thunder storm which raged at that time, a bolt of lightening was seen to strike in the field and shortly afterward about four and a half acres of the trellis went to the ground.

It is thought that the lightening burned some of the guy wires in two.

Taylor McGarvey states that he can see no other reason for the poles going down, as he put the anchors and the wiring into first-class condition last spring.

O. F. Graff, a brother of Mrs. J. L. McCracken, has purchased the old Whelan place on the corner of Church and Oak streets and is remodeling it with a view to making his home here permanently.

MRS. MATHEWS THROWS WRENCH INTO MACHINERY

POTTER VALLEY, Aug. 16.—County Auditor J. J. Mathews threw a wrench into the machinery at the meeting held by W. D. L. Held, candidate for superior judge, here last night.

Held denied that he had ever attempted to have Mrs. Mathews recalled, and that lady being present, rose to her feet and produced the proofs.

She in turn was ruled out of order by J. G. Newman, chairman of the evening, but made her point before resuming her seat.

Held then proceeded with his talk.

His audience consisted of but 35 people, as compared with 300 who attended the Preston meeting.

Mrs. Minnie Thompson returned the latter part of last week from a visit with relatives at Berkeley.

Preston Favorite at Two to One Odds

The only bet that Preston backers have been able to get down as regards the result of the judge fight, was placed yesterday when $200 of Preston money went up against $100 on Held.

Preston money can find no takers here, although almost any amount is ready at odds of 2 to 1 and one bet was offered this morning at $1000 to $400 without takers.

CLAUDE VAN DYKE RECOVERING FROM ACCIDENT

Claude Van Dyke, who was accidentally shot while hunting in the mountains north of Covelo last Thursday evening, is in a local hospital and will recover from the effect of the wound in the course of several months. Van Dyke was shot in the hip, the bullet perforating the bone and passing entirely through the limb.

The accident happened when Claude Davidson mistook him for a deer in the dusk and let drive at a distance of about 200 yards. Van Dyke unbeknown to Davidson had gone to scare out a buck which had been sighted by the boys. The deer was expected to come out about where Van Dyke appeared hence Davidson's mistake. The fact that Van Dyke was wearing kahki colored clothing added to the deception which brought about the accident.

After the shooting Van Dyke was lowered from the rock where he lay by strips of clothing, and his companions stopped the flow of blood by holding their fingers in the wound all night. After daybreak he was taken to the Van Dyke ranch, about two miles away, and Dr. Rea went up from this city to attend him.

He was brought to Ukiah Saturday morning.

Arthur Tracy and party returned the first of the week from a motor tour of Humboldt county, visiting Eureka while in the northern section. They report a very pleasant trip.

EUREKA-S. F. STAGE LINE PETITION FILED FRIDAY

An inter-county automobile stage line which will traverse four of the north-of-the-bay counties and connect Eureka and intervening points with San Francisco by a daily passenger service, is among the possibilities of the near future, if the state railroad commission sees fit to grant the petition of L. C. Pressey and S. S. Praeger, San Francisco men, who filed their application last Friday.

The proposed trip schedule provides for a car leaving Eureka at eight a. m. and arriving at Sausalito at 6:20 p. m., leaving Sausalito at 8:20 a .m. and arriving at Eureka at 6:30 p. m The following towns will be served enroute: San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Cloverdale, Ukiah, Willits and Scotia. The proposed fare is $15 between Eureka and Sausalito.

WARRANT FOLLOWS WEDDING OF WILLITS MAN

The way of Louis Thompson, a bridegroom of a week, bids fair to be strewn with thorns instead of roses. Yesterday the father of Mrs. Thompson, who was formerly Miss Winnifred Beach, swore to a warrant for the arrest of his son-in-law, alleging that the latter committed perjury when he swore to the county clerk that the young lady was 18 years old when the couple applied for a marriage license here last week.

The irate parent threatens to carry the case to a finish, and hopes to finish his recently acquired son-in-law in the process.

Mr. Beach hails from Dyerville. Thompson gave his residence as Willits.

Beach claims that the young woman was but 17 years of age last May, and lacks many months of being 18.

Mrs. Ebbert Falls and Breaks Wrist

Mrs. Ebbert suffered a fracture of both bones in one of her wrists Wednesday night, as the result of a fall.

Dr. Rea was called and set the broken bones.

Luther Redemeyer and wife, of Long Valley, were in town Thursday.

DRY WINTER IS FORETOLD BY EMINENT SCIENTIST

Professor Porta Also Predicts Severe Storms For Next Fall.

Professor Albert F. Porta, who is here as architect in charge of the construction of the palatial residence being built for Charles Tribuno, has given out some very interesting forecasts as to the weather, earthquakes, etc., and the Dispatch-Democrat readers will no doubt recall the reference made to his very remarkable forecasts in the Dispatch-Democrat several weeks ago.

Mr. Porta foretold with absolute fidelity, as has been proven by developments, the thunder storms occurring during August, including the one last Tuesday night, earthquakes in Mexico, August 11, the big storm in the southwest, which washed out the tracks of the S. P. in in the Coachella section, and many other earthquakes, storms asd volcanic eruptions all over the earth.

In an interview with a Dispatch-Democrat representative yesterday morning, Professor Porta foretold a period of storm and earthquakes which is to occur a year from now. At that time he states Jupiter and Saturn will be in conjunction on what is called the line of quadrature, and a big sunspot will be thrown into the same line at intervals of 13½ days as the sun revolves on its axis. The conjunction of the two planets on this line happens only about every seventy years and with the further complication of the sun spot, the storms and earthquakes that will ensue will be unexampled in a century's history. He states that the Pacific coast will pass through some very severe storms, particularly in September, and that earthquakes will shake various regions all over the entire world, coupled with much volcanic activity.

In forecasting the period from August 25 to 31, which we are now passing through, Professor Porta's forecast is for windy, foggy and moderately cool weather in northern California from the 25 to 27; some showers from Central California southward from August 28 to 31; partial rains with fresh winds and cool nights along the northern Pacific coast.

One of the most significant of Professor Porta's forecasts, is that as to the general character of the weather for more than a year to come. He states that the coming winter will be one of unexampled drouth in California and that the dry spell is destined to continue for over a year from now. This condition is brought about by the fact that Jupiter is during this period to be at its farthest from the sun in its big swing about the solar center.

In the light of his success in forecasting weather conditions, it would seem to be prudent to base future calculations on this forecast and make provision for the dry wintre, spring and summer which are imminent.

After Jupiter has passed the point which marks its farthest departure, there will be a gradual increase yearly in the rainfall.

Professor Porta is a scientist of world-wide reputation and is a recognized authority on planetary influences and their results as regards the earth. He bases his forecasts upon strictly scientific data.

In addition Professor Porta ranks among the first in his profession of architect and is also a painter of recognized ability.

His plans for the Tribuno home contemplate a villa in the style of the Italian renaissance. When completed it bids fair to be the most beautiful and artistic structure in this section.

Atty. Frank Taft came down from Willits on a short business trip last Tuesday.

AUSTIN LEAVES TO PREPARE BOOTH FOR EXHIBIT

Declaring that he and Farm Advisor Myszka will build the Mendocino county booth to suit their own ideas if they are unable to find carpenters in Sacramento, Robert Austin departed yesterday for the state capital to take charge of the arranging and the placing of the Mendocino county exhibit, taking with him a kit of carpenter tools in his car. Mr. Myszka will follow next week. By the time the latter arrives on the scene, with the exhibit, Mr. Austin expects to have the booth well under way. His forehandedness in regard to the kit of carpenter tools will probably stand the pair in good stead, as it is rumored that mechanics are scarce at the capital.

Mr. Myszka returned early in the week from a trip to Covelo, where he succeeded in obtaining some splendid specimens of melons, pears, apples, corn and pumpkins. A fine creamery exhibit from Covelo also is promised.

In Anderson valley Mr. Myszka rounded up a nice display of apples last Sunday.

The coast will be represented by a redwood display and also a varied agricultural and dairy exhibit, while Ukiah and Sanel valley sections will have fruit, grains, hops, etc., in lavish profusion.

Good Word Spoken For County Hospital

A good word has been spoken for Mendocino county's hospital by Miss Turner, the local Red Cross community nurse, a woman of wide and varied experience. Miss Turner states that the local institution is greatly in advance of those of several other counties in the state where she has been employed as regards equipment and general efficiency, while, as to cleanliness and sanitation, the local institution is far ahead of the great majority.

Coming unsolicited, as it does, her praise speaks well for Dr. Rea, the superintendent, as well as for the general efficiency of Former Steward Mankins and the present Steward, Arnold Zimmerman, and the other individuals who comprise the force of the hospital.

MRS. CHAPLIN CELEBRATES NINETY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY

It is seldom that one is permitted to enjoy a ripe old age and yet remain young in thought and deed as is the fortune of our esteemed pioneer lady Mrs. C. S. Chaplin, who celebrated her 93rd birthday last Monday at her home on West Perkins St., when fifteen of her most intimate friends were assembled to help her enjoy the unusual event.

She was the recipient of many gifts, and beautiful floral tokens of love, and best wishes. The afternoon was devoted to social converse and reminiscences, during which dainty refreshments of ices and cakes were served.

Although time has scattered the snowy flakes upon her brow it has dealt kindly for she not only retains all her faculties but takes an interest in all home and civic affairs and it is such reunions of friends that mark the happy landmarks on the journey of life and fill the pages of memory with beautiful things.

POPPY COLORED PLATES FOR 1921 LICENSE

The State Motor Vehicle Department has announced the colors for next year's automobile license plates. The plates will be of the color of the golden poppy, so characteristic of the state, with letters and figures in black.

The letters "CAL." will follow the numerals next year, instead of preceding them, and the year figures, "21," will be below the state abbreviation, instead of above it, as now. This is done to prevent any possible working over this year's plates.

There will be seven styles. The regular automobile license plate will carry the number of the license, the abbreviation of the state and the year. Trucks will have "COM." preceding the numerals. City, county, state and other cars exempted from license fees will have the letter "E" in a diamond shaped frame. For dealers the word "dealer" will appear at the bottom of the plate, beneath the numbers. Public service cars will be designated by "P. S." on the plate and army and other federal government machines will have the letters "U. S."

EUVELLE HOWARD FOR CONGRESS

Elected to County Office By Largest Majority Ever Received By A Candidate.

IS THE LEADING CANDIDATE

Endorsed By Judges and Supervisors, By Stockmen and Farmers, By Laborers and Educators.

(Petaluma Argus, August 20, 1920.)

Euvelle Howard now seems to be the leading candidate for Congress from the First District. The county officers of his county are supporting him. The Lake County Farmers' and Stockmen's Association adopted resolutions unanimously recommending and endorsing him for the office.

Laborers, business men and educators, have written letters and otherwise exerted themselves to assist in his election.

Elsewhere in the district there is a well organized effort looking to the same end. And the movement has been gathering a momentum for several months.

Began A Peddler

Mr. Howard started his business life as a peddler in the streets of Lakeport and followed that vocation for two years.

Learned to Write at 15

He attended night school and learned to write at 15 years of age. But he persevered to such advantage that he became a school teacher and Taught School 11 Years.

He was principal of the Lakeport grammar school for four years, and organized the Clear Lake Union High School.

County Recorder

He was a delegate to the Republican State Convention, and was elected County Recorder by the largest majority ever given a candidate in his county. Retiring from politics, he bought a newspaper plant and became

Editor of Lake County Bee.

Mr. Howard organized and managed the Clear Lake Railroad Company, of which he was the secretary and a director. He raised by subscription over $100,000 to initiate this project.

A Remarkable Family

While doing all these things Mr. Howard seems to have been no less a success in the raising of his family. His friends invariably speak in praise of his wife, a former school teacher. Two of his children recently graduated from the University of California at Berkeley, another is in college, one served as lieutenant and captain in the recent war, and another served in Red Cross work.

Has Strong Backing

Judge M. S. Sayer of Lakeport, in writing on behalf of Mr. Howard's candidacy, says: "So often such resolutions are a mere matter of form, but in this instance it is different."

Sheriff B. F. Shaul says he is heartily in accord with the fine resolutions of approval and will esteem any interest taken in Mr. Howard's candidacy a personal favor. And to the same effect the letters from Fred H. Merritt, county clerk; H. B. Churchill, district attorney: the Lake County Republican Central Committee, the five justices of the peace; four supervisors and a long list of other men and women in all walks of life.

Has Newspaper Support

The San Francisco Chronicle had a splendid article including a picture and copy of resolutions of the farmers and stockmen. Many of the newspapers in the district have had splendid write-ups of his work.

Elect Republican

Mr. Howard has been boosted by his friends for some months now. He seems to be the strongest candidate in the field, well fitted for the position.

C. E. Hardisty, one of Potter Valley's well known citizens, was in town the early part of the week.

COAST NOTES

FORT BRAGG, August 25.—The stork made delivery here on Monday and Tuesday of this week of two girls and two boys: Monday morning a son arrived to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hensley, who reside across Pudding Creek. That same day a 11½ pound daughter was born to the wife of O. P. Gillmore of Gualala. Another fine daughter put in her appearance yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hurley in this city. Mrs. Pearl Myers is also rejoicing in the birth of a son, Cecil Winfired McNeill, born on the 24 inst. at the McNeill home.

Maxine, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Zunke, died Friday morning. About four months ago the child fell into a pan of scalding water.

Between eight and ten thousand ties were destroyed last Wednesday, in the Elk Horn section back of Westport, as the result of a forest fire which was started August 1 by lightning. The loss is reported to have been sustained by the following: Harry Lynch, 7,000 ties. Dr. Smith, 1,000 ties. Union Commercial Company, 500 ties. The fire originated upon the Michael's place where the lightning struck five big trees, one of which was set fire. After burning for several days, the tree fell against another redwood and set it afire. The fire in the latter tree was well up on the trunk beyond reach. It burned very slow and was believed to have gone out. One night, however, it fell in a clump of brush from which the fire spread rapidly. All the buildings on the George Cronwall place were burned, including an unoccupied house. Considerable damage was done to some of the timber, and quite a bit of tan oak was burned. It is stated that nine forest fires were started in this county by the last electrical storm.

Mrs. Wilson McFaul had a close call from being killed one evening last week when she walked off a trail, falling 12 feet and striking her head on a rail. A gash seven inches long was cut in her scalp, sixteen stitches being necessary to draw the wound together. Mrs. McFaul was on her way to visit a neighbor and did not notice that the trail had partly caved in. It was almost dark at the time. She immediately climbed back up the bank and made her way back to her home.

NORTHWESTERN WANTS HIGH RATES CONTINUED

The Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company has applied to the railroad commission for authority to continue in effect rates established by the United States Railroad Administration which contravene the long and short haul provision of the California Public Utilities Act, and to include in the new tariff rates increases provided in recent proceedings before the interstate commerce commission and the California commission. This action is a formal step made necessary by the recent rate changes.

HELD FAILS TO ANSWER PRESTON IN DEBATE

Takes Up Time With Promises of Tax Reductions But Gives No Proofs.

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

And still the question goes unanswered: "What has the Superior Judge to do with fixing the tax rate?"

The foregoing is only one of a series of questions which W. D. L. Held failed to answer at the Preston-Held debate held here Saturday night at Union Theatre, at which City Attorney Stone acted as chairman.

In fact it seemed as if Mr. Held evaded the issues, and devoted most of his time in a feeble effort to convey the idea that if he were elected he would reduce the taxes, but did not give one concrete reason how the reduction could be made.

In his opening remarks Mr. Preston stated that he regretted very much that the dignified office of Superior Judge should be the subject of such a mud-slinging campaign as is being carried on by Mr. Held. He further expressed regret that Mr. Held had drawn such men into the fight as Judge White and Hale McCowen, Sr., with a view of discrediting their integrity and honor.

He asked Mr. Held to explain why he had taken this procedure of mud-slinging instead of standing on his own merits as a lawyer and a man, in seeking such a dignified office.

Mr. Preston made it very plain that he would be willing to withdraw from the race if Mr. Held, or anyone else, could read any law wherein the Superior Judge or Grand Jury is given power to raise or lower the tax rate.

He then read figures to prove that the 1915 Grand Jury, of which Held was foreman, had not reduced the taxes one bit. And added that out of the 17 remaining in the county, who were on the 1915 Grand Jury, 15 are now supporting Preston.

As has been previously stated, Mr. Held practically ignored the questions asked by Mr. Preston, and, among other things, failed to show how the Superior Judge has any power to lower or raise the taxes.

Mr. Held did, however, picture himself a lone man, whom many of the leading businesses and citizens—combined in a powerful ring—were fighting. He sort of gave out the impression that if elected to office he would see that the taxes of the "little fellow" were reduced, but his arguments seemed vague and disconnected; so much so that it was hard to make head or tail of them.

He also attacked the big business interests of the coast, without mentioning that they have always paid the bulk of the county taxes. He gave out the impression that he was in favor of socking the taxes of these interests—the very backbone of the coast—up to the last notch so as to let the "little fellow" off easy.

In this discussion of unjust assessments and taxes, he failed to mention, however, that he recently sold a valley hop ranch for $36,000 which was assessed for about $5,600—this fact having been called to the attention of Mr. Preston.

Mr. Held then devoted considerable time in a feeble effort to discredit the work of a number of the county officials, and intimated that we could get along without them, and thereby make another cut in the taxes. Here, again, concrete reasons were lacking.

Scoffing mention was made of the annual financial statement of the county which is compiled and issued by the Auditor at a cost of about $1,000 per year, with a view of creating the impression that the Auditor voluntarily wasted this money each year. As a matter of absolute fact the State law requires that this report be compiled and published each year.

Confusing figures on "what might have been" were presented to prove that his famous 1915 Grand Jury had saved the county a big sum in taxes. The arguments were exceedingly hard to grasp.

In his response, Mr. Preston asked why Mr. Held had done nothing in the last five years if he knew the county affairs to be in such an alleged rotten condition. He further mentioned that the Assessor and Auditor, whom Held discredited, have since been returned to office and that ample opportunity has been had to make exposures before the Grand Juries which have held sessions each year since.

There was no big burst of applause at these remarks but you could tell that the audience got the logic of the argument.

In conclusion it might be said that the debate was a disappointment in that Mr. Held made no apparent effort to answer Mr. Preston's questions, choosing, as it seemed, to deal with idle promises about tax reductions, backed by arguments which were muddling and based upon what appeared to be very poor foundations. TO THE PUBLIC

Ukiah, August 18, 1920.

For the benefit of the FEW people in Mendocino County who have read and believe some of the falsehoods W. D. L. Held has caused to be printed and circulated throughout the county, I wish to call attention to one small item which concerns myself, and which was printed a short time ago in the special Held edition of the Republican Press. It reads as follows:

"We found that the Rules of the Superior Court, adopted 30 years ago, now had been ordered printed at a cost of 25 cents a copy, when the same printer offered to do the same work for a private individual at 6 cents a copy."

The above is an untruth. I am the printer referred to and know whereof I speak. There was no comparison between the two printing jobs in question. The 6 cent job was a little pamphlet on cheap paper, for a Witter Springs prospectus, 3 by 5 inches, while the Court Rules were 5 by 8 inches on the best book paper. I explained this to the 1915 Grand Jury at the time, and I don't think there was a juryman present, except Held and a couple of his "stool pigeons," who did not believe and KNOW that I was telling the truth.

The 22nd of last February I was 60 years old, and I came to Ukiah in 1870, and have spent most of my life here. I have never been arrested or charged with any crime, and don't know of an enemy I have on the face of the earth, unless it is "Billy" Held and his clique who tried to make the 1915 Grand Jury believe that I was robbing the county.

There was one more thing that came before the 1915 Grand Jury which I would like to explain, as it concerns one of my best friends—a man who served the people of Mendocino County for over twenty years and could have held his office as long as he wanted it, but was getting along in years (past 70), and did not care for it another term. That man is Hale McCowen, Sr., whose character W. D. L. Held is trying to besmirch. Mr. Held tried to show the 1915 Grand Jury that I had bought a piece of property from Mr. McCowen, and had paid for it out of county work, given me by Mr. McCowen. At the time I was called before the Grand Jury there was less than $400 paid on the place, and I had been over a year paying that. Now if Mr. McCowen had intended to let me pay for my home out of county work, he could certainly have done a little better by me than that.

As a matter of fact there were many months that I did not get a dollar's worth of printing from the county, and never since I have been in business have my county bills reached in excess of $150.00 for one month, and I do work for several of the county officials.

It has been five years since the 1915 Grand Jury met, and last month I made the last payment on my home, there being a balance due of $1000.00. The original price of the place was $2000.00. I sold a half interest in my printing business and used the money to pay this $1000.00 final payment on my place. I make this statement in the interest of justice, and, as God is my judge, every word of it is true.

Since the above was written Mr. Held has issued another four-page paper, in which is printed a picture of the contract of the sale of property from Catherine Thomas to my wife. I am really glad he had it photographed and printed, for if the people who read it will look at the beginning of the contract they will readily see that it was made out in the name of CATHERINE THOMAS to Mrs. Geo. Ray. I would like to explain how Mr. McCowen's signature was written at the bottom of the contract. I went into his office and he gave me the document to look over, which I did, and told him it was all right. Before he thought, he signed it, but immediately drew his pen through the signature and said he had made a mistake. We walked into the next room and Miss Thomas signed it and I took it home for my wife to sign.

Mr. Held also has a photograph of the payments made on the back of the contract, for which I am again glad, for if the reader will examine these payments, he will see where Mr. Held has told another untruth. He says I collected $574.25 from the county, and that my wife paid $471.-50 on the contract. Now according to the photographic copy it shows that on Feb. 6, 1916 (nearly two years after the contract was made) there was a balance due of $1615.40, and this would show that only $385.40 had been paid in all this time, and $100.00 of this was paid at the time the contract was made, with money my wife had, which would leave only $285.40 paid at a time long after Mr. McCowen went out of office.

Signed: G. W. RAY.

MANY NEW CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Through Atty. J. C. Hurley, John A. and Tillie Gibson have made application to adopt Joyce Winnifred Body, a minor child, and the application has been granted.

Through Weldon & Wessels, T. J. Weldon has brought suit to quiet title to certain property in the town of Ukiah, naming the Wurtenburg family and others as defendants. The suit is a formal one, and is not expected to be contested.

Through the same attorneys, Neva Smith has filed a suit in foreclosure against Francis Frey and others, seeking to recover $10,470, and accrued interest, as well as $1047 attorney's fees and the costs of the suit.

The Finnish Colony, through Thomas & Thomas, has filed a suit against Mary Howard and her husband, seeking to recover $542.50, alleged in the complaint to be the value of certain wood belonging to the colony and wrongfully appropriated by the defendants. The plaintiffs also ask $150 damages.

Through Weldon & Wessels three suits have been filed by various plaintiffs against the California Fish & Game Commission. One is by Jesse Ginochio as plaintiff, who alleges that he was wrongfully arrested and held on a charge of transgressing the game laws. He asks $3,000, also actual damages in the sum of $2,000, and $5,000 exemplary damages. Then on account of alleged permanent injuries sustained when his car went over the grade during a struggle with the officers, and on account of damage to the car, he asks another $3,000 and actual damages of $2,000 and exemplary damages of $5,000, making $20,000 in all demanded in the complaint.

A second suit has been filed by Robert White, who was arrested by Game Warden Perkins for alleged illegal fishing.

White wants $5,000, an additional sum of $5,000 exemplary damages, and $500 actual damages.

The third complaint is by Oe Olsen and demands the same relief as that asked in White's complaint. Oleson was arrested at the same time with White on a similar charge.

Through Weldon & Wessels, T. J. Weldon has filed a formal suit to quiet title, naming Dyas Shelton and others as defendants. The property involved is the old Thompson ranch north of Ukiah.

Through Chas. Kasch, Lucy H. Holtze, and her son, Everett Cox, have filed a suit to quiet title against John Taylor as administrator and other defendants. This is also a formal suit and no contest is looked for.

Through George Redwine Chas. Heath has filed a suit for divorce against Nettie Heath, the complaint being sealed. The difficulty over Heath's being adjudged dead by a coroner's jury, as referred to in last week's Dispatch, has been surmounted, it being discovered that there were two Chas. Heaths. The plaintiff in this case, as naturally may be surmised, is the one who is not dead, according to Redwine.

Through Weldon & Wessels, a sealed complaint in divorce has been filed by Wallace Hill against Helen Hill.

RAIN HURTS HOPS BUT BRINGS BENEFITS

The thunder storm last Tuesday night brought a copious rain, which has damaged the hops to a certain extent, and which put a period to the picking all day Wednesday in such fields as had started. The rain was welcomed by the grape men, however, according to Farm Advisor Myszka, who states that it brought them a great deal of benefit.

Aside from its effects on the crops, the rain put out the fires which have been raging in various parts of the county and cooled the temperature appreciably.

He has renamed the place "The Hub."

MYSTERIOUS PAINS AND ACHES

Make Life Hard to Bear for Many Ukiah Women

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read a Ukiah case:

Mrs. R. Grant, 358 E. Perkins St., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have certainly done me a lot of good and I am glad to recommend them. My back ached and pained considerably and I felt run down and got tired easily. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. Doan's Kidney Pills have always relieved me of these attacks and strengthened my back and kidneys. I know they are worthy of a trial by anyone having kidney trouble."

THE JUDGE FIGHT

It is to be greatly deplored that the contest for Superior Judge has taken the course it has. Never in the political history of the county has there been a campaign of such bitter personalities and recrimination, and into which have been dragged so many needless and even harmful side issues which were so irrevelant and confusing and misleading to the public. For this condition, truth compels us to say that Mr. Held is chiefly if not altogether responsible. Early in the year and before he had any opponent, Mr. Held through the newspapers commenced a campaign of abuse and misrepresentation, and later by a mass of printed matter sent broadcast throughout the County and by speeches before the public, he has continued this campaign and developed it into one of bitter personalities. At the outset he confined his attacks to a comparatively limited number whom he designated as the "Ukiah ring" which he said was composed of the county officials and a few other residents of Ukiah. Later however, as the campaign progressed he rapidly increased the number until he included many other of our best and most highly respected citizens throughout the county and also included nearly all the newspapers, all the banks, etc. All that was necessary to call forth his denunciations was the fact one was not his supporter. He has skillfully and unscrupulously played on the sensitiveness of the public in the matter of taxation and has tried to make the people believe that the high taxes were the result of waste and corruption on the part of the officials and that if he is elected Judge he will give relief. Mr. Held knows that as Superior Judge he can do no more toward lowering taxes than any private citizen can do. He knows that if such conditions exist all that is necessary to correct them is to give publicity to the facts. This he can do as a private citizen as well as he could as Judge. And here we might say if Mr. Held is sincere in his charge that high taxes are the result of waste and corruption on the part of the officials why did he wait until he wanted to run for Superior Judge to move in the matter? He says he knew it as far back as 1915. If he wanted to relieve the people why did he wait five years before doing anything and let the people suffer all this time? By so doing he has left himself open to the suspicion that he was more anxious to use this matter as propaganda to promote his campaign for Judge than he was to serve the people. But even worse than his wholesale bitter personal attacks, Held has sought to arouse class consciousness and class prejudice, and create a false issue and then use it for his political purposes. In this time of social unrest throughout all lands he has attempted to awaken those dark and dangerous passions more or less latent in all mankind and thus array class against class and section against section. He has, as already indicated, without any just reason bitterly attacked prominent men and business interests and because these men resent these malicious and baseless attacks he then claims that their opposition to him is because they are corrupt and dont want him to interfere with their nefarious plans, a charge that he himself knows is false and which he does not believe, but which he makes simply for political purposes. Mr. Held's methods of campaigning are most unfortunate for the county. He has not only aroused a class feeling that is hurtful and wrong but his charges of corruption against the responsible heads of our county government have been published broadcast and have most unjustly besmirched the fair name of our county and though Mr. Held has not even offered any proof of his charges and while those acquainted with the facts know that his charges are false, yet they will more or less mislead the public elsewhere.

His bitter personal attacks on those opposed to him show that he is extremely vindictive and his many false and misleading statements, and his campaign methods generally, prove him to be morally and temperamentally unfitted for the high office of Judge., who should be fair and unprejudiced to every one and above all be free from malice, so that in the discharge of his judicial duties all will feel that he will be impartial and just. Under the conditions Mr. Held himself has created it is impossible for him to meet these requirements, and we think that his election would be a public calamity.
